

Our Pricing

Thank you for your interest in a trip or workshop through Family Lines. Each experience is custom tailored for your family and those you come with, it's our prayer and intention that these shared experiences will positively impact your family line both now and for generations to come.

We pride ourselves on the quality and professionalism that go into each one of our guided trips and workshops, and our pricing reflects industry standard. Beyond helping pay the expenses and staff associated with your trip, the money you give will contribute greatly to helping us reach families around the world through our annual father-story filming projects. Proceeds from your trip will also go toward helping bolster our participation scholarship fund.

Family Lines is mission driven not financially driven. Our bottom line is to see the hearts of fathers and children drawn together. If you or someone you have invited would like to participate but are not in a position to pay the full price, please let us know. If it can be helped, we never want price to be the only obstacle that keeps someone from participating in what we offer.

We sincerely look forward to serving you!
